

SB 5728 - DIGEST

Requires the Washington state institute for public policy to study the feasibility of potential funding methods and a finance system for the incorporation of community and technical colleges into an expanded definition of basic education. The Washington state institute for public policy shall complete its study and make recommendations no later than December 1, 2006, to the governor, the state board for community and technical colleges, the higher education coordinating board, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and the fiscal and education committees of the senate and the house of representatives.
